COLLABORATIVE GRANT ACTIVITY

Program Director/Primary Investigator

Addressing Contemporary Intersectional Sexual Harassment in the Biomedical Research Community. (PIs: Shawna Malvini Redden (Program Director), Jennifer Scarduzio, Jessica Ford; Co-I: Ann Coker). Funding: National Institutes of Health. R01 application submitted October, 2022. $3,595,525 requested. (Not awarded)

Lead a multi-site team (Sacramento State, University of Kentucky, Baylor University) to develop and submit Sacramento State's first NIH R01 grant application as primary applicant. The proposed project's primary goal was to test a novel, emerging Communication-Based Harassment Intervention (CBHI) to reduce sexual harassment in biomedical research using a multi-phase, mixed-method, triangulation design. Responsibilities: Coordinated meetings and material development across three sites; lead grant writer; coordinated and secured approvals; managed submission and subsequent correspondence.

Faculty Associate (2014-2017)/Assistant Research Professor (2013-2014)/Research Assistant (2011-2013)

1. Bridging the Gap Offender Reentry Program (BTG-OR) (2014-2016). (PI: Michael Shafer). Grant #TI024867. BTG-OR is a comprehensive reentry treatment and support program for male offenders releasing from prison, with co-occurring disorders, at medium or high risk of re-offending, and receive community supervision from Maricopa County Adult Probation Department. Responsibilities: Qualitative data gathering strategy, protocol development, data analysis, report writing, manuscript development.
2. Bureau of Justice Assistance and Mental Health Collaboration (2013-2014). (PI: Michael Shafer) Funding: Bureau of Justice Assistance, Office of Justice Programs, Department of Justice. Purpose: Increase public safety by improving the supervision and treatment of female offenders with serious mental illness and/or co-occurring disorders that are multisystem-involved. Responsibilities: Qualitative data gathering strategy, protocol development, analysis, report writing.
3. Criminal Justice Drug Abuse Treatment Studies II. (2011-2013). National Institute on Drug Abuse, National Institutes of Health. Request for Applications No. RFA-DA-08-002 . (PI: Michael Shafer). Michael.Shafer@asu.edu. $2,977,760 over 5 years. Project ended 2013. Responsibilities: Acting as technical lead and conceptual co-lead for two of three study protocols (Organizational Process Improvement Intervention OPII and Medication Assisted Treatment (MAT)) involving qualitative data analysis, collaborating with researchers from nine other research sites, developing IRB protocols, analyzing and coding data, developing manuscripts, helping develop an RO21 NIH grant proposal to extend studies on organizational change.

4. Workforce Development to Increase Access to Medication-Assisted Treatment (MAT) Services Among Minority Populations. (2010-2011). Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration Center for Substance Abuse Treatment; Request for Applications No. TI-10-014; $750,000. (PI: Michael Shafer). Responsibilities: Co-facilitating and assisting with eight focus groups with recovering substance users from four cultural groups across the U.S., coordinating project communication among affiliated researchers across the country, completing institutional review board application materials for main project, developing focus group protocol and focus group guide, creating codebook for data analysis, analyzing data, writing white papers and academic articles based upon focus group data, compiling environmental scan data, writing case studies of clinics providing MAT, assisting with development of broad-scale quantitative survey for MAT providers, developing messaging for health campaign materials, conducting follow-up focus groups to test health campaign messaging with target audiences.
